

Popcorn Words

The BOLD words are words that your child will be assessed on throughout the coming school year.

Research has shown that children's reading skills grow as they learn sight words. In kindergarten, we call sight words "Popcorn Words" because these words seem to "pop" off the page as we identify them while reading. The following list contains many important and frequently used words in written language. Children are encouraged to know these words in a snap. If a reader can identify these words then he/she can focus on unknown words and/or comprehension while reading.
